Dear Graduate:

Moncton Minor Hockey Association is offering one $250.00 scholarship to graduates of our Association. Financial need and scholastic ability will be considered. There is no restriction as to field of study.

The applicant must complete the enclosed application form from our organization and write a brief letter telling of his/her interests, activities (School, Church, Community, Part-time job, etc.,) and any physical disabilities or extenuating circumstances, if any.

Application forms are available through the U18 Recreational Coordinator or through Moncton Minor Hockey Association, Executive Director, and must be received no later than:

Monday, March 25th, 2024 by 12 noon.

Completed Application forms can be emailed or mailed to the address listed above

Recipients will be notified at the Volunteer Banquet in April. The recipient is responsible for contacting MMHA in August to advise student number and address of the Registrar of institution you will be attending in the fall so they can send along payment.

If the students plans change and they are no long able to attend school in the fall, a second student will be chosen to receive the funds as outlined.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact your Association.

Good luck, and thanks for being a part of Moncton Minor Hockey Association.

Sincerely,

Dan Boudreau
MMHA President
